German Iris,
50c each; $5.00 per dozen.

German Iris

One of the most dependable plants and very decorative in the garden. Fine in clumps and borders, in fact, most anywhere. Bloom late in May and last into June and are in various shades.

Anchusa Italica

(Alkanet)

Grows to a height of 3 to 5 feet; has rough leaves and stems; branches freely, each branch terminating in a large pyramidal spike of brilliant, blue flowers. Blooms in May and June. Of easy culture.

Digitalis—Foxglove.
60c each; $6.00 per dozen.

Anchusa Italica.
60c each; $6.00 per dozen.

Hibiscus, Crimson Eye

Immense flowers of purest white with large centers of velvety crimson. Blooms profusely all Summer.

Digitalis (Foxglove)

One of the most popular old-fashioned plants. Stalks grow to about three feet. Bloom in July and August. Should be in every planting.

Hardy Delphiniums.
60c each; $6.00 per dozen.

Delphinium

(Larkspur)

One of our most showy and attractive plants. They are fine among the shrubbery and for sections of borders. Long blooming season. They come in various shades and increase in size and beauty every year.

Anemone Japonica

(Windflower)

A hardy, decorative, free flowering perennial, 2 to 3 feet high, blooming from August until late Fall. One of the best Fall flowering perennials. We have two varieties: Queen Charlotte, with very large semi-double, rose-pink flowers, and Whirlwind, with large semi-double pure white flowers.

Hibiscus, Crimson Eye.
75c each; $8.00 per dozen.

Anemone Japonica.

6 Hardy Perennials (1 of each shown on this page) for only $3.50

Achillea, "The Pearl."
60c each; $6.00 per dozen.

Achillea, The Pearl

One of the finest of the white flowering border plants. Also fine for cutting. About 2 feet high, producing fine, white flowers in profusion during the entire Summer.

Coreopsis

One of the most satisfactory hardy plants for steady bloom from June on. Flowers of rich, golden yellow and of good size. A strong grower.

Coreopsis.
60c each; $6.00 per dozen.

German Iris. 50c each; $5.00 per dozen.

Sweet William

One of grandmother's favorites, and still going strong. About 18 inches high, very hardy. Produces large, flat clusters of flowers of various colors.

Gaillardia (Blanket Flower)

A gorgeous perennial. Blossoms in June and will continue all Summer if frequently cut. About two feet high. A hard center of deep maroon is bordered by petals of orange and yellow, ringed by circles of crimson, red and maroon.

Aquilegia (Columbine)

Blooms from June till August. Height 2 feet. Flowers are red and yellow, held gracefully on long stems. A strong grower and free bloomer.

Gaillardia.
60c each; $6.00 per dozen.

Aquilegia.
60c each; $6.00 per dozen.

Phlox

One of the very best bedding plants. Good in beds, borders, along paths, and in clumps in shrubbery, especially in the red and scarlet shades. We have fine varieties in white, pink, scarlet, crimson, lilac, lavender and blue. They thrive everywhere, get stronger each year, and have no insect enemies. They have a long blooming season and are decorative everywhere.

Eulalia (Hardy Grass)

A Japan Rush, with narrow green leaves with a silvery white midrib. Very hardy and decorative in clumps in a large border or in front of the tall shrubbery bed.

Hardy Garden Pinks.
60c each; $6.00 per dozen.

Hardy Garden Pinks

No garden is complete without some of these spicy favorites. They have a perfume all their own. Are fine for cutting in midsummer.

Phlox. 60c each; $6.00 per dozen.

Tritoma (Flame Flower)

Also sometimes called Red-Hot Poker. The spikes are of gigantic size, frequently $4\frac{1}{2}$ feet high, and with heads of bloom over 12 inches long, of a brilliant orange-scarlet, shading to salmon-rose on the edge.

Eulalia—Hardy Grass. 75c each; $8.00 per dozen.

Tritoma—Flame Flower.
$1.00 each; $11.00 per dozen.

Yucca

A hardy, evergreen plant. Blossoms on a tall stalk, which terminates in branching spikes of beautiful, creamy white, bell-shaped flowers. Midsummer.

Helianthus (Hardy Sunflower)

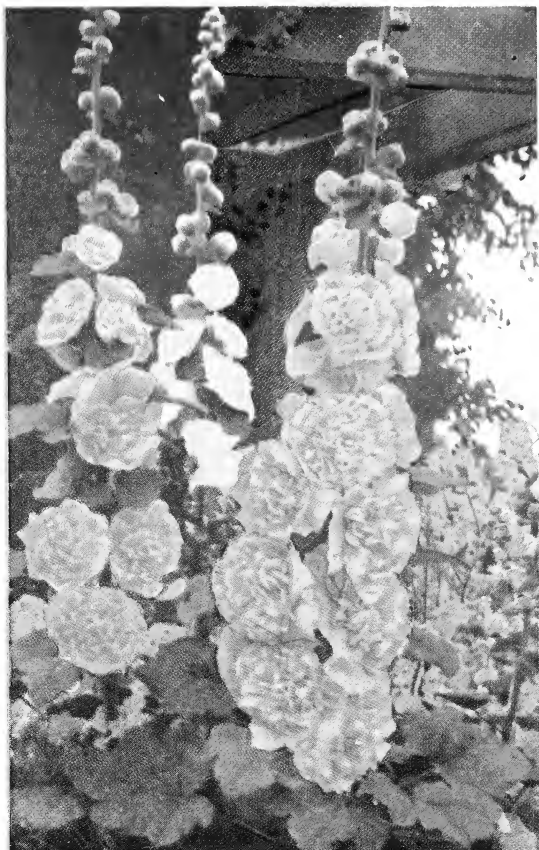

Flowers are large, from light to deep yellow. Fine for large borders. Blooms in September and October, when flowers are scarce, and is therefore prized for cutting.

Shasta Daisies

A fine plant for any hardy garden. Blossoms white, and when at their best are sometimes three and four inches across, and are very desirable for cutting.

Hollyhock

Fills a place all its own. No other perennial grown is so decorative, so majestic and so stately. It is indispensable in formal plantings, is useful in backgrounds for lower plants, in clumps in large borders, at entrances, in beds in large grounds, on hillsides, in fact almost everywhere. Grows 6 to 8 feet tall, and is in various colors. Should be in every planting for its decorative artistic effect.

Common Snowball

The large rounded balls of snow-white flowers in May and June make this a very showy and attractive shrub. Very vigorous.

Snowball, Common,
$1.75 each; $20.00 per dozen.

Hydrangea Paniculata Grandiflora

C. F. Bagby
Grandiflora, Common,
$1.50 each; $17.00 per dozen.

The most popular of all the Hydrangeas. Has immense, cone-shaped, white blossoms which turn to pink. This shrub is the most showy of all in the Fall and therefore very valuable. Is fine as a single specimen plant or in beds or borders. Perfectly hardy in smoky or dusty locations, and also does well in the shady corner.

Hydrangea Paniculata Grandiflora.
$1.50 each; $17.00 per dozen.

California Privet Hedge.

California Privet

The most popular privet for hedges. Untrimmed it will attain a growth of from 6 to 10 feet but it is far more attractive when trimmed to a height of about 3 to 4 feet. A beautiful effect is produced when it is planted in two rows, the plants 12 to 18 inches apart and "staggered." Does well in smoke and in dust and shady places.

Barberry Thunbergi

The best of all hedges for low, informal effects. One of the hardiest of all hedges being especially adapted for planting in cold climates. The foliage is very fine, in the Autumn taking on a gorgeous coloring, and the berries which remain all Winter are red and very attractive.
